

REMARKS

By the amendment, we have corrected an obvious clerical error in the date of the priority application on page 1 of the specification.

It is noted that the error has already been corrected in both the Filing Receipt and in the cover page of the published US application.

We understand from discussion with Examiner Stuart Hendrickson that the application is otherwise in condition for allowance.